

2022 Guggenheim Policies (continued)

Waterfront Use

- 1) During the Guggenheim Summer Camp, Youth Ministry and Family Camp programs, the beach and other communal areas may be used by others only with the permission of the program's Director. While we wish to extend hospitality, these requests can only be honored when it does not interfere with scheduled activities.
- 2) All waterfront activities must be supervised by lifeguards with current American Red Cross waterfront certification. There is no swimming after dark. No jumping or diving off the raft is allowed due to the shallow swimming area. The raft accommodates a maximum of six swimmers.
- 3) If necessary, the lifeguard will establish a pattern of movement for entering and exiting the water and within the swimming area. #

Prior to your departure

- 1) In the Dorm, turn thermostats off, in the Lodge to their lowest setting. Charges may be assessed if thermostats not turned off or down.
- 2) Waste and garbage must be placed in the bins next to the Dining Hall or in the basement of the Lodge. The garbage bins must be closed and locked. Thank you for not overloading garbage bags, risking their breakage during transport. Place recyclable materials in proper containers.
- 3) Complete all items on the Departure Checklist.
- 4) Please verify all food including spices and condiments have been removed. Do not continue the customary practice of leaving condiments, unopen bottled liquids, etc. for the next group. All leftover items will be disposed prior to the next group's arrival. *
- 5) The group leader will verify the Visitors' Log is complete.
- 6) The group leader will sign and date the Departure Checklist.
- 7) The group leader will leave the Visitors' Log and Departure Checklist at the facility.

After your visit

- 1) Contact Deacon James Crowley if any visitor tests positive for COVID-19 within 5 days of departure. *
- 2) After your departure, the Facility Director will:
 - a) Verify the Departure Checklist has been properly completed.
 - b) Review the building is clean and perform any cleaning that does not pass inspection.
 - c) Use disinfectant spray on all bathroom fixtures, furniture and kitchen fixtures. *
 - d) Collect the Visitors' Log and Departure Checklist to send to Deacon James Crowley. The Visitor's Log will be used for contact tracing if necessary. *

Insurance

Groups from the Diocese of Ogdensburg and diocesan parishes are covered by the Diocesan Liability Insurance. Groups not affiliated with the Diocese MUST supply the Chancery with a CERTIFICATE OF INSURANCE for liability, naming the "Roman Catholic Diocese of Ogdensburg as an additional insured." This must be mailed to Deacon James Crowley before the reservation is confirmed. Personal insurance, especially in the instances of health and illness, is the responsibility of the group.

2022 Reservation Guidelines, Policies and Visitors Mandatory Safety Plan

As variants of COVID-19 continue to plague our lives, we must continue to do what we can to prevent the spread of the virus and protect one another. The Guggenheim Reservation Guidelines and Policies has a Visitors Mandatory Safety Plan to improve the safety of all visitors. Please be aware the pandemic may require further changes to this policy.

The responsible party for each group must review this 2022 Reservation Guidelines, Policies and Visitors Mandatory Safety Plan and certify they have read the policies and agree with them to complete the online registration request at <https://www.rcdony.org/guggenheim/>. Otherwise, a signed copy of this document will be requested.

What's Available?

The Guggenheim Center encompasses multiple facilities and is open from Memorial Day to Columbus Day. Only the Lodge is available for reservation requests from June 2 to August 13, 2022.

The Dormitory can accommodate 70-80 people overnight. It is close to the Dining Hall and the In, a multipurpose building.

The Lodge is one of the smallest vintage Adirondack Great Camps. It has four bedrooms which can accommodate up to 16 persons overnight and affords additional space for those using sleeping bags. Lodge use is limited to adults.

Groups occasionally reserve use of the Boathouse (next to the Lodge), which accommodates 2-3 people.

Overnight Costs

A $16 donation per individual or no less than the minimum charge, per day will be expected. * Minimum daily charges are:

Dormitory $320 Lodge $128 Boathouse $32

Charges are based on each twenty-four-hour period from 12 noon to 12 noon or any part thereof. Religious communities are asked to make the same donation to offset the expense of maintaining the Center.

Single Day Costs

Groups may reserve facilities for 4-hour blocks. Additional four-hour blocks cost $65. Costs are based on the number of users:

1 – 20 users $65	41 – 60 users $195	81 – 100 users $325
21 – 40 users $130	61 – 80 users $260	over 100 users $390

Cancellations

Once reservation request is accepted, cancellation fees * are based on number of weeks before use and a percentage of minimum overnight or single day charges:

Less than 4wks	4 to 8 weeks	Over 8 weeks
100%	50%	no cancellation fee

Invoices will be sent after your stay. Make payment to the Diocese of Ogdensburg. Group leaders will be billed for extraordinary and personal expenses, such as damages, as incurred. The Diocese reserves the right to invoice based on estimated use when their reservation is accepted, any charges or refunds will be processed after your visit.

2022 Guggenheim Policies
